Continue (or begin) your child's reading journey by reading 100 books selected for you by the Livonia Public Library's Children's Librarians. Simply read a book and mark it off on your paper log, or collect a badge in Beanstack for every ten books you read. When you're finished, come in and pick out your free book to add to your home library! This challenge is available the June before their kindergarten year starts, through the end of that school year. To register go to livonialibrary.beanstack.org
