WELCOME NEW LIBRARY DIRECTOR KRISTEN EDSON

We are so excited to welcome new Library Director Kristen Edson to the team! Kristen comes to us after five years as the deputy director of the East Baton Rouge Parish Libraries and a combined 13 years spent between the Bossier Parish Libraries in Louisiana and the Chicago Public Library.

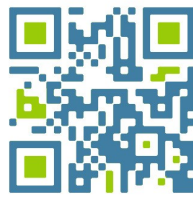

Kristen is excited by the opportunity to grow the library's position in the community and has been very impressed by the volunteerism and fellowship she has witnessed in Livonia so far. When she lived in Louisiana, Kristen spent time volunteering at local area food banks and St. Vincent de Paul, and looks forward to getting involved in the community as she gets settled.

Kristen has arrived at the perfect time as we launch our first ever strategic plan. She is working with LibraryIQ, a library strategist, to engage our community and gather ideas and input regarding library services and the future.

The Community Engagement portion of the plan runs through December 15. There are both online surveys and in-person focus group options. After this portion, drafts will be created over the winter months, and the strategic plan will be finalized in March 2024.

Help plan your library's future!

Scan the QR code here or visit livoniapubliclibrary.org to ensure we hear from you!
